H2 PERFORMANCE

What we said

- “The sales achieved in the first half of the 2018 financial year are expected to be maintained in the second half.”
- “Emerging Markets should continue to be the most important contributor to growth.”
- “Performance in the second half will benefit from the additional rights to the AZ Anaesthetics.”
- “Operating expenses should stabilise.”
- “Net interest paid is expected to rise.”
- “It is anticipated that operating cash flows will remain strong and a conversion rate of 100% of operating profits is targeted.”
- “Results are inexorably influenced by relative currency movements…….sales from offshore territories will convert into a lower value of ZAR revenue.”

What we delivered

- H2 sales marginally above H1 sales (CER).
- Emerging Market growth ahead of Developed Markets in all segments.
- Higher H2 gross profit margin percentages in Therapeutic Focused Brands.
- Opex in line
- Higher H2 interest expense.
- Conversion rate of 105% achieved.
- H2 ZAR results unfavorably affected by currency.
- Manufacturing profit down R350m in H2

REFLECTIONS ON LESSONS LEARNED OVER 20 YEARS

- Doing something worthwhile makes life rewarding
  - Sustainable business transcends profit alone
  - Central to the Aspen journey has been and is creating patient access and improving skills
  - Achieved through quality, affordable medicines and significant investments in capabilities
  - Has made and continues to make our journey worthwhile
- Nothing worthwhile is achieved without sacrifice
  - Every year has been tough, every budget tougher
  - There have been no easy moments
  - No rest and no time to rust
- Busy people contributing positively to others lives are invariably happy people
- Management of your struggles define you
  - At Aspen we don't measure how often we have gone down on the canvas, only how often we have got up……
- Success is not a straight line upwards
  - No short cuts – others win the lotto
- Being consistent and doing ordinary well is the key
  - Aspen's journey has followed this trajectory – no surges or crashes
  - A solid wall's strength is built inconspicuously brick by brick
- To reach your potential and execute on ambitious strategies
  - You need Courage….real Courage

ONE LIFE, BE BOLD, STAY RESTLESS AND NEVER RUST

TO REST IS TO RUST
